

Connecting People. Sustaining Impact.

Sewa Beats Introduction

(pronounced "Say-wuh Beats")

Sewa Beats is an international training and development company that delivers programs in the areas of leadership, diversity and inclusion, communication, and change management. All of their programs involve rhythm and music and leverage the power of experiential learning. They are trusted by familiar names such as the Harvard Business School, Pfizer, Bayer, Roche, Genentech and many more. Sewa Beats has worked in 19 countries, seven languages, six continents, and more than 300,000 people have experienced their programs. Please welcome . . . Sewa Beats.